FINSTOWN

Finstown is a thriving village situated mid-way between Kirkwall and Stromness, Orkney's two main towns. Enjoying the usual amenities as well as seasonal entertainment, Finstown makes an ideal central base for your stay in Orkney. Orkney Self-catering bungalows and the upturned boat house all have uninterrupted panoramic sea views. There are regular sightings of sea and birdlife including seals, otters, swans, eider ducks and many more.

Below is a plan of our holiday accommodation.

SITE PLAN - FINSTOWN

Orkney Self-Catering

THE UPSIDE DOWN BOAT HOUSE, FINSTOWN

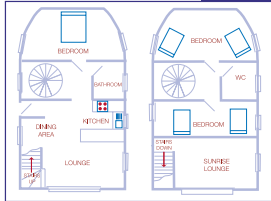

The upside down boat house is a totally unique self-catering venue, with accommodation over two floors.

The unusual plan of the property gives every room a personality of its own.

Views of the Bay of Firth can be enjoyed from the downstairs lounge, the first floor sunrise lounge and outside from the private lawn with its own patio furniture.

Perfect for the family, there is a modern fully equipped kitchen, three comfortable bedrooms and the house has its own garage for your bicycle and equipment storage.

The upside down boat house offers a comfortable home-from-home and promises you a memorable holiday here in Orkney.

THE BUNGALOWS, FINSTOWN

The Bungalows are set in a delightful crescent of comfortable top quality accommodation, and feature two well proportioned bedrooms.

A modern and fully equipped kitchen leads to the dining room. Sliding doors separate the dining room from the sitting room (with sofa bed - see picture right), which looks out over the Bay of Firth. French doors open on to your own front patio, which is furnished with chairs and patio table.

Each bungalow has a carport that leads out through a door to your own drying garden (with seating) and one bungalow has wheelchair access.

This is very high quality accommodation that visitors to Orkney have come to expect.

SKESQUOY COTTAGE, BIRSAY

Skesquoy is a delightful country cottage set in 90 acres of its own grounds. The unspoilt tranquillity of this corner of Orkney's mainland along with the highest standard of accommodation, make Skesquoy a perfect base for your holiday.

Bordering an RSPB Reserve, numerous trout lochs and close to Orkney's many archaeological sites, you will enjoy a peaceful yet comfortable break in Birsay.

Skesquoy has two double and one twin-bedded room, a fully equipped kitchen, lounge/dining room with an open fire, and a sun lounge overlooking the Loch of Hundland.

If you are looking for a country retreat holiday, with birdsong for company, you will not be disappointed.
